

F Parts and Wholes

1. Group eleven cubes into two parts. Write a number sentence that describes your cubes.
2. Group fourteen cubes into two parts. Write a number sentence that describes your cubes.

G More Even or Odd?

1. Is the number of boys in class odd or even? Explain how you decided.
2. Is the number of shoes in class odd or even? Explain how you decided.