

Number Line Display

This section contains three identical horizontal ruler strips, each enclosed in a dashed rectangular border. Each strip features a solid horizontal line with 15 vertical tick marks spaced evenly along its length. A small icon of a pair of scissors is positioned at the left end of each ruler, indicating where to begin cutting. The strips are arranged vertically, one above the other, with a dashed line separating each strip from the one below it.