

2. Bull sharks have 50 rows of teeth and can lose up to four teeth a week. A scientist from South Africa had 973 shark teeth in his collection and a scientist from Australia had 618 shark teeth in her collection. When they put their collections together, how many shark teeth did the scientists have to study?

Estimate:

Number sentence _____

3. Scientists recorded the number of sharks swimming along the coast. There were 453 black tip sharks and 712 spinner sharks. How many sharks did the scientists see altogether?

Estimate:

Number sentence _____