

A At the Carnival

There are eight cars on the Twirling Tornado ride. Each car holds six people. How many people can ride the Twirling Tornado at once? Draw a picture that describes your answer.

Number sentence _____

B Still at the Carnival

Kathy's dad bought a sheet of 20 tickets for the rides. They have six people in the family.

1. How many tickets can each person have if they share the tickets equally?
2. Will any tickets be left over?
3. Draw a picture that describes your answer.

Number sentence _____