

D Walking Around Shapes

A bug walked all the way around this figure so that it ended up where it started. The distance it walked is 36 centimeters. The figure is made of four identical equilateral triangles. How long is every side of each triangle? Solve the problem two ways to be sure you are right. On a separate page, explain how you found both your answers.

