

Y Problem Solving: 5s and 10s5
x 7

1. Sam and Josh have 35 pieces of gum. The gum is divided evenly into 7 packages.
 - A. How many pieces of gum are in each package?

 - B. Write a number sentence to show how you solved this problem.

2. Mary and Ana have 60 cookies. They want to package them to share with friends. Write a number sentence to show how many friends they will be able to share their cookies with if they put:
 - A. 10 in each package.
 - B. 5 in each package.
 - C. 6 in each package.