

4. A game consists of four rounds with each player beginning two rounds.
5. At the end of the game, players add the numbers they recorded. The player with the largest sum wins. Play rotates and a new student serves as the judge.

