

Use Strategies to Find Area

Homework

1. The sketch below shows a large square with a square hole inside it. The shaded part is 319 square inches.

Use the following steps to calculate the side length of the square hole.

- A. Find the area of the large square.
- B. Find the area of the square hole.
- C. Find the side length of the square hole.